Abbott Nicholson Attorneys Named Michigan Super Lawyers
Quilter and Esshaki Receive Prestigious Designation

(Detroit, Mich. – October 22, 2007) – Detroit law firm Abbott Nicholson, P.C. announced that Thomas Quilter III and Gene Esshaki have been selected as Michigan Super Lawyers. The announcement was made by William Gilbride, managing partner of Abbott Nicholson.

The Super Lawyer designation is awarded to outstanding Michigan attorneys who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement. Only five percent of the lawyers in Michigan are named Super Lawyers.

Quilter is a founding shareholder of the firm. His primary areas of expertise include business planning, corporate law and estate planning. Quilter earned his undergraduate degree from John Carroll University and his law degree and master of laws from Wayne State University.

Esshaki is also a founding shareholder of the firm. He specializes in business and corporate law, complex commercial litigation and alternative dispute resolution. Esshaki earned both his undergraduate and law degrees from Wayne State University.

Abbott Nicholson is a full service, Detroit-based, corporate law firm. It specializes in solving the legal, tax, and business issues confronting corporations, public entities, entrepreneurs, and individuals. It is a member of Meritas, a global alliance of more than 170 commercial law firms located in over 60 countries. Abbott Nicholson is the only law firm in southeast Michigan that is a member. Members are ranked among the top firms in most cities. For more information, visit www.anqey.com.
