

Attorney Christopher R. Gura Elected to the Detroit Metropolitan Bar Association Board of Directors

DETROIT, Mich., July 8, 2009 – Detroit law firm Abbott Nicholson, P.C. announced that attorney Christopher R. Gura has been elected to the Board of Directors of the Detroit Metropolitan Bar Association (DMBA) for a three-year term. Mr. Gura, who is the current President of the Barristers (the DMBA’s young-lawyer’s section), was installed during the DMBA’s Annual Meeting and Awards Banquet at the Roostertail Banquet Center on May 26, 2009.

The DMBA was established in 1836 by a group of prominent Detroit area attorneys. Its stated purpose was to create a forum that would allow lawyers and judges to improve the administration and quality of justice in their community through education, dialogue, and community activities. The DMBA currently serves the legal community of Southeastern Michigan by providing services, products, and information essential to the successful, ethical practice of law.

Mr. Gura is an associate with Abbott Nicholson, P.C. and is a member of the firm’s commercial litigation, employment, and auto dealer practice groups.
